Topic :

: Antony's speech

Subject :

: English

Class :

: IX

Friends, Romans, Countrymen, Lend me your ears:

I come to bury Caesar, not to praise him.

The evil that men do lives after them;

The good is oft interred with their bones;

So let it be with Caesar. The noble Brutus
Hath told you Caesar was ambitious;
If it were so, It was a grievous fault,
And grievously hath Caesar answer'd it
Here under leave of Brutus and the rest
For Brutus is an honourable man;

So are they all, all honourable men.
Come I to speak in Caesar's funeral.
He was my friend, faithful and just to me;
But Brutus says he was ambitious;
And Brutus is an honourable man.
